PROTESTANT ORPHANS' HOME.

The forty-first annual meeting of the managers of the Protestant Orphans' Home was held yesterday afternoon in the board room of the Home. Mrs. M. R. Vankoughnet occupied the chair, while with her on the platform were: Rev. Hugh Johnston, Mr. Kelan, Major Leigh, Dr. McConnell, Mr. H. A. Massey, Mr. W. M. Huson Murray, Q.C., and Mrs. Cawthra. The children of the institution, numbering about 200 and looking rosy, cheerful and bright, were seated in tiers above the platform, and furnished proof positive of the good work that was being done by the ladies and gentlemen interested in the Home. The proceedings were opened with a short address by Rev. Hugh Johnston, in which he invoked the blessings of the Almighty on the Home, its inmates and supporters. Letters were read by Mrs. Vankoughnet from the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, the Mayor and others, regretting their inability to be present. Major Leigh, on behalf of Mrs. Leigh, the secretary, presented the reports of the lady managers and of the treasurer.

The report of the lady managers showed that the number of children received during the year had been 109; 64 of these were boys and 45 girls, chiefly from the city. By religious denominations they were as follows: Church of England, 59; Presbyterians, 12; Methodists, 23; Baptists, 4; Congregationalists, 2; Lutheran, 4; Reformed church, 3; Protestant, not named, 2. During the year 78 were discharged from the Home. Of these 59 were taken by relatives; one sent to the Industrial School, and one boy, had left, without leave and hired out. Ten boys and three girls were apprenticed, three girls were adopted and one little girl had died from croup. Mrs. J. E. Austen had undertaken the duties of recording secretary. The resignation of Mrs. Hetherington, Miss Mills, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. Donald Ridout, Dr. Frank Cowan and Dr. Austin Ellis was announced with regret. An arrangement had been made with the Lady True Blues whereby the management accepted the moneys collected by them and agreed to receive any children that they might recommend. The sum of $50 had been received from them. The report expressed the continued satisfaction of the lady managers with Miss Wheelwright, the matron, who has occupied the position for 23 years. The management had received during the past year a bequest from the late Mr. Eastwood, $100 ; from Miss Margaret McTavish, $100 ; Mrs. Eagle's special bequest, $200 ; also the sum of $1,100, being the residue of Mrs. Eagle's estate awarded to the Home by the master in Chancery. The two last portions of the magnificent bequest of the late William Gooderham, being $2,500 each, had been paid by the trustees and had been invested, at a small interest, in order that they might be in readiness for the reduction of the debt on the building.

The report of the Treasurer showed the receipts for the year to have been $12,317. composed principally of : Bequests, $4,089 ; collections by the lady managers, $2,121 ; city grant, $2,000 ; Government grant, $1,168 ; rentals, $1,000 and contributions by relatives, $950. The expenditure amounted to $8,622, leaving a balance of $3,695 to the credit of the Home. The principal items of expenses were : Milk, $1,171 ; bread, $1,157 ; wages, $1,071 ; fuel, $738 ; interest, $679 ; meat, $638 ; dry goods, $613 ; groceries, $579 ; matron's salary, $400.

These reports were, on the motion of Rev. Hugh Johnston, seconded by Dr. McConnell, received and adopted.

It was moved by Mr. H. A. Massey that the following should be the managers and officers for the ensuing year : First directress, Mrs. M. R. Vankoughnet ; second directress, Mrs. John Cawthra ; treasurer, Mrs. R. L. Cowan ; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Leigh ; recording secretary, Mrs. J. E. Austin ; managers, Mrs. M. R. Vankoughnet, Mrs. Cayley, Mrs. Cowan, Mrs. Lockhart, Mrs. Leigh, Mrs. Creelman, Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Cawthra, Mrs. Austin, Mrs. Lightbourn, Mrs. Robert Darling, Mrs. Farrer, Mrs. Holmsted, Mrs. William Hope, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Heintzman, Mrs. Arthur, Mrs. Farley, Miss Morse, Mrs. Denison ; medical officers, Dr. Macdonald, Dr. McConnell, Dr. Burt, Dr. Hunter, Dr. McArthur, Dr. Ryerson ; solicitor, Huson W. M. Murray, Q.C. ; committee of council, Rev. J. D. Cayley, Mr. Kivas Tully, Mr. S. C. Duncan Clark, Mr. J. S. McMurray, Major Bennett, the Bishop of Toronto, Rev. Hugh Johnston, Mr. H. Godson, Mr. W. B. McMurrich, Q.C., Mr. Henry Cawthra, Mr. A. R. Creelman and Mr. H. A. Massey ; matron, Miss Wheelwright. This motion was carried unanimously and the above officers were declared elected.

Dr. McConnell presented the report of the medical staff. This showed that in spite of the prevalence of contagious and infectious diseases in other institutions, there had been no outbreak of a serious nature in the Home. This was due largely to the care of Miss Wheelwright and those associated with her.

After the usual votes of thanks to the officers and others prominent in the work, the meeting adjourned and all partook of the refreshments provided by the management.

THE 41st ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PROTESTANT ORPHANS' HOME, 1892.

The Lady Managers of the Protestant Orphans' Home desire to place the Annual Report of their work before the public, trusting that it may be found interesting and satisfactory.

Their first wish is to express their devout and humble thanks to their Heavenly Father for the many blessings of the past year, without which every effort must have been futile.

The health of those in the Institution has been very good, as will be seen by the Medical Report. The number of children received has been 109. Boys 64, girls 45, chiefly from the city, with the exception of 2 from Galt, 3 Port Hope, 1 Ireland, 2 England and 4 from Germany.

By religious denominations as follows: Church of England 59, Presbyterian 12, Methodist 23, Baptist 4, Congregationalists 2, Lutheran 4, Reformed Church 3, Protestant, not named, 2.

The number discharged was 78. Taken by relatives and friends 59; sent to Industrial School 1; one boy left, without leave, and hired out. Boys apprenticed 10, girls apprenticed 3, girls adopted three; with much regret the Lady Managers record the death of one little girl from croup; the child's mother was able to be with her, during her illness.

Total number of children 2130; of inmates 2254. Average number of children 177·50 average number of inmates 187·50, during the year.

Mrs. Austen has kindly undertaken the duties of Recording Secretary to the Home.

The Lady Managers regret to announce the resignation of Mrs. Hetherington, Miss Mills, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Ellis, and Mrs. Donald Ridout, also that of Dr. Frank Cowan, and Dr. Austen Ellis, whose kindness in attending to the children was very great, and who will be much missed when he removes to his new home at Norwich.

In October, Mr. John Farley and Mr. Fletcher came as a Deputation from the "Lady True Blues" to ask if the Managers would accept the money they had collected, or would collect, for the Home, instead of getting up another Orphanage. The Managers accepted their kind offer and agreed to take any children they might recommend, that were eligible for admission. They left expressing themselves very much pleased with their visit and reception. In November, Mrs. Lightbourn having made arrangements for spending the winter in Bermuda, it was decided to ask Mrs. John Farley to act as a substitute for her, until her return.

Mrs. Farley was present on the occasion as Treasurer of the True Blues' Orphans' Fund, and handed the sum of fifty dollars to Mrs. Cowan, for the benefit of the Home. Two children named Kinsman, whose father was an Orangeman, were received from Galt at this time. The Lady Erne Lodge sent three barrels of apples, cakes, candies, etc., to the children, which were much appreciated.

A communication having been received from Mr. Waste, Superintendent Public Schools, in reference to the care and fuel for the new school in the grounds, the First Directress called upon him, in answer; the final result being that the Board of Public Schools agreed to provide a Caretaker and fuel at their own expense. The closing exercises in the old school room, and the opening of the new, were very interesting functions. The Lady Managers, teachers and the children express themselves as being very much pleased with the new school, and grateful to the Public School Board for their kindness in putting up such a commodious and well finished building. A picture of the Home is to be sent to the Columbian Exposition, Chicago. Through Dr. Roseburgh, having asked for Delegates to attend the Prisoner's Aid Convention, Mrs. John Cawthra, Mrs. Austen, Mrs. Hope and the Secretary were named, and found the proceedings most interesting.

The Management have received during the past year a bequest from the late Mr. Eastwood, $100; from Miss Margaret McTavish, $100; Mrs. John McNab, $300; Mrs. Eagle's special bequest, $200; also the handsome sum of $1,100, being the proportion of the residue of Mrs. Eagle's estate, awarded by the Master in Chancery. Mr. S. Taylor has, with his usual kindness, sent us $100 again this year. As the late Mr. William Gooderham's munificent legacy has all been paid, and a release given to the Trustees for the same, the two last portions of $2,500 each, have been invested, at a small interest, to be in readiness for the reduction of the debt on the building; but as the last portion was received, also that of Mrs. MacNab, after the Treasurer's books were closed, no mention could be made of them, in the accounts for this year.

The Lady Managers sincerely trust that as the debt will then be reduced to $7,000, the public will generously help them to pay it off altogether.

The Lady Managers wish to express their continued satisfaction with their excellent matron, Miss Wheelright, who has been in that position for more than 23 years. Also to thank

Miss Armstrong and the other lady teachers for their attention and success in the School room, including the Kindergarten which is very interesting to the little ones, encouraging as it does, the love of the beautiful in their young minds.

Also, to thank the ladies, who with Mrs. Scott, endeavour to fortify the boys for the battle of life, with Temperance principles.

The children have attended Divine Service twice every Sunday, as well as Sunday School, held by kind friends in the Home, and have contributed, the boys $5.84, the girls $5.75 from their galleries, to the Offertory, besides giving a number of loaves for the poor, bought with their own pennies, at Thanksgiving Day, which gave them great pleasure.

With regard to the children who from year to year have been placed out as apprentices, in the country, (and as one correspondent, who is a wholesale merchant in the city, said, "the country is by all odds the best place for a boy to grow up in.") As a rule, they have been doing exceedingly well, getting a good report, such as "Peter is doing first rate," sent in with the yearly money, and "Uncle John says I am a good boy," from another. Partly owing to the Secretary's absence and illness, some of the accounts have not been sent out as punctually as usual; and although it is sad sometimes to find masters who think their boys wear so many clothes, that they do not feel inclined to pay, even the small sum asked for them. Yet, it is a pleasing contrast to find others writing "why did yon not send for Percy's money this time?" The world has many different characters in it, but from observation, the greater number are of the good old type and take, "do as you would be done by," for their motto. In once instance the question was mooted of sending a boy back, but the motherly woman could not resist the Orphans' tears, and he is now as happy as possible with her. On two or three occasions this year, brothers have been placed out, close to each other.

In another case, a woman wanted to bring her daughter—a growing girl—into town. She was invited out to see the place, the farmer meeting her at the station, and treating her so well, that she came back delighted, feeling that her daughter was "one of the family."

A father also went to see his son, in the country, who was apprenticed out; he was quite satisfied with the arrangement, and did not unsettle the boy, which was very wise, for the boys and girls will lose their money, if they desert their plans, but will have the satisfaction of receiving it in full, with interest, if they prove themselves good, steady apprentices, and will be free to go where they wish at seventeen years of age.

The Lady Managers feel most grateful to all the kind friends who have contributed towards the comfort and support of the children ; to Mr. Graham, for his gratuitous services ; to the nurses, and assistants for the faithful discharge of their duty ; to the butchers for meat, the bakers for bread and cakes, others for fruit, etc. ; Mrs. Carlyle for her annual treat of ice cream, which is indeed a great treat to the little ones, and goes far to prove what a wholesome thing ice cream is, as the youngest child is none the worse, for a plateful.

In particular the Lady Managers would like to thank the gentleman, who while enjoying their winter game of curling remembered the Orphans, (it was worthy of good curlers), and sent them a barrel of flour ; think how many little mouths were filled, and enjoyed the result of their manly sport. Many thanks for the kind thought.

The members of the Queen's Own also kindly sent a box of canned tomatoes, the other day, to the Home. Mr. Lily contributed a box of plants for the children's gardens, very kindly.

In September, all the children old enough to go, were taken to the Exhibition.

The Street Railway Company has taken them to a concert at the rink, and to the boats, for four different excursions, most kindly given, during the holidays, for which the Lady Managers must thank the Company, the Owners and Captains very warmly, as it does the children so much good, going on the water. They had a pail of Raspberry jam, for Thanksgiving Day : at Xmas, Dr. Ellis took the character of Santa Claus, and distributed the presents, and during the summer, as they had an invitation to the pic-nic of the Army and Navy Veterans, they were taken to it, by the Boys' Superintendent, himself a Veteran, with two medals, one for the Indian Mutiny and another for "good conduct" and "long service." In conclusion, here is a copy of a letter received, "It is with pleasure we write these few lines with regard to our adopted son, now called by our own name ; he is a very good boy and is very useful and intelligent ; we think that we could not be better satisfied, for he makes home cheerful and happy, and he is a bit of lively company ; we would not like to part with him."

MEDICAL REPORT.

On behalf of the Medical Staff of this institution, I beg to submit our annual report, and as on former occasions it is gratifying to say that during the last year no sickness of a serious nature has occurred. During the whole of the recent severe winter, while other institutions both public and private were severely afflicted with contagious and infectious diseases, and outbreaks of deadly diptheria, this home with its 200 inmates was happily free from such dire visitations.

This happy condition is due to the tact and care of Miss Wheelwright and associated workers in charge of the institution, and more especially to the untiring attention and watchfulness of the board of Directresses. We commend to the thoughtful and Christian public the noble efforts of these ladies, and point with pride to their successful record for so many years.

But one death occurred during the year from croup. We gratefully acknowledge the uniform courtesy and support of the Board and cheerfully give our assistance in the position to which we are appointed.

JOHN MCCONNELL, M.D.

THE TREASURER IN ACCOUNT WITH THE PROTESTANT
